

Journey 1

Eskasoni and Highland Village Cultural Tour via Bras d'Or Lakes

This journey will begin at the Nova Scotia Highland Village with a presentation on the Gaelic culture and the traditions, foods and performances by the Gaelic interpreters.

The visitors will then depart Iona by vessel and travel to Eskasoni for a Mi'kmaq cultural experience. While there, the interpreters will tell stories of the people and the connections between the Gaels and the Mi'kmaq. There will be a feast of traditional foods and a cultural performance and a cultural gift will be presented to each visitor as a memory of the experience.
